

Privacy Statement

The mission of Liberty Youth Ranch is to provide a permanent and loving environment for children who through no fault of their own are in need of a home, a family, and the opportunity to simply be children. We base our concepts on a belief in God and the uniqueness, dignity and inherent worth of each individual.

Liberty Youth Ranch will not disclose, divulge, or sell any information concerning our donors or their gifts to any person or organization. Liberty Youth Ranch will always preserve the integrity and privacy of our online communications and transactions. Personal data including name, address, phone number, email address, birth date, and other information will be gathered electronically or by other means, accessed by authorized employees and only used for business purposes.

You may join or withdraw from the Liberty Youth Ranch mailing list at any time by notifying us in person, over the telephone, by mail or via email.

Online financial transactions are secure via our encrypted system to ensure the protection of sensitive personal information such as credit card numbers, bank account information and other sensitive financial data. Donations and contributions made to Liberty Youth Ranch are deductible under the IRS Code Section 501 (c) (3) and 170 (b) (1) (a) (vi) as stated in the determination letter issued to us in July, 2003. For this reason contributions are non-refundable.

It is the intent of Liberty Youth Ranch to fully comply with all laws and regulations regarding charitable contributions from our donors.

We do not permit external advertisers to use our website. However, we have posted several links to organizations in our network of financial support. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of those "linked" entities.

Liberty Youth Ranch recommends that contributors contact their legal or accounting representative regarding the tax deductibility of any donations.
